FARRA WINS.

John M. Farra was elected to represent Garrard county in the next legislature, carrying the county over his opponent John L. Dozier by a majority of 179 votes. This is Mr. Farra's first try at politics and his popularity no doubt carried the County Democratic. Garrard county people will now have the satisfaction of knowing that they have a representative in the legislature of whom they may well be proud, as well as one who has to the minutest detail the welfare of the county at heart.

Though not born in Garrard county Mr. Farra came here in his early boyhood, his mother is a native of the county, and ever since he has been old enough he has taken a deep interest in the affairs of the county, and no man has done more to further the interests of the town and county than John Farra. There has never been the least possibility of us securing any thing in the way of improvements or that would tend to benefit the town or county, that he was not found quickly at the front, putting forth his every and best efforts to forward the interests and secure what might be of benefit to his home people. The obstacle has never seemed too unsurmountable for him to attempt to overcome, the distance too long for him to travel, and the amount of energy too great for him to put forth in behalf of his native county and his home people. Now that he has been elected to the legislature his sphere of usefulness will be enlarged, his opportunities to serve his people will be increased, and we will all feel assured that he will in no wise neglect us. Young, intelligent, energetic and progressive, he is sure to make his mark, and it is an assured fact that he will make some of the old timers at Frankfort sit up and take notice, and too, it will behove them to look to their laurels, for we can assure them that there is no end to Mr. Farra's possibilities and that he is not the kind of man that will remain satisfied on the ground floor.

Farra requests the Record to add to the people of the county his sincere gratitude for the splendid support they gave him, and he desires to assure them that in attending to his duties at Frankfort that he will know no party, no class, clique or clan, that he desires to and will be the representative of the entire people; regardless of party affiliation, and that he will put forth his very best effort to serve them in an acceptable manner.

Democrats swept Louisville and Jefferson county, McCreary carried by 5175 and only one republican representative was elected in the whole district. James Quarles, democrat defeated Nat Cureton for Chancellor by 5271.

CITY RACE.

The old board was elected by a good majority in the race for city councilmen. The water works bond issue carried, 191 voted yes and 31 voted no. In the city council race W. M. Zanone leading ticket he received 315 votes, Parker Gregory received 309, H. C. Hamilton 305, B. F. Walter 295, G. S. Greenleaf 273, Wm. Hendon 232, J. R. Mount St. J. D. Gilley 57, Sam Cotton 43 and A. F. Sanders 43. Messrs Cotton and Sanders had requested that their names not be printed. The old council will begin at once to make plans for a better system of water. They are going to have an expert here in the near future and decide upon the best and most economical plan.

O'REAR FALLS SHORT.

In the tobacco belts, where Judge O'Rear was reported to be the strongest, he was literally overwhelmed by Democratic votes. The Republicans had claimed that the large Democratic majorities in the First and Second districts would be largely reduced on account of the late "night rider" troubles and the alleged friendliness of the tobacco association member for Judge O'Rear. These predictions, however, did not materialize, as both of these districts gave their largest majorities since 1896.

The Republican claim of 40,000 majority in the Eleventh district fell short over half. The returns received, with three Republican counties missing failed to show that the Republicans had carried their "Gibraltar district" by 15,000. With the returns all in from this district it will probably show a Republican majority of 17,000.

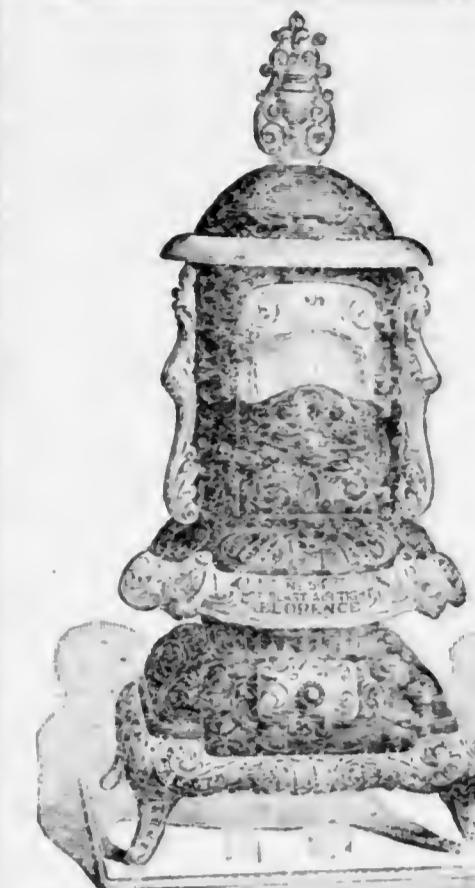

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY NEWS.

On every side are heard praises for County Committeeman W. H. Brown and secy. J. E. Robinson. Every one is congratulating them for the excellent work in Garrard county. Never before has the party been better organized and it is partially due to these two gentlemen that the democrats had such a grand victory in this county. While it was known that Mr. Robinson understood the game of politics and was a good organizer, some people did not know of the powers of "Bogey" Brown and there is not a democrat in Garrard county who does not appreciate this splendid work. He has made a political hit and no honors within the power of Garrard county democrats are too good for him, and he is sure to have them bestowed upon him in the future. We join the many democrats in the county in congratulating Brown and Robinson upon their powers of organization. Every committeeman in each precinct did good work. The chairman of the Court house precinct was J. E. Robinson of East Park, Dave Ross, of West Park, J. W. Hamilton, of West Bryantsville, W. S. Carrier, of East Bryantsville, C. A. Robinson, of Buckeye, E. B. Ray of Walker School house, Woodburnsides, of Paint Lick, E. L. Woods, of Union, W. G. Gooch. Among the many other good democrats who did telling work for the party and who helped to steer the entire ticket to victory were, W. L. Lawson, Jas. I. Hamilton, T. B. Robinson, J. B. Rubles, C. A. Arnold, Woods Walker, J. O. Bogie Ebb Cooley, John White, J. P. Bourne, Ashby Arnold, Geo. Ballard and many others. We think that every democrat in Garrard county was interested in this election and came out and lent their time and energy in the election of a ticket that will do honor to the name of Kentucky and will benefit the masses of people.

In Massachusetts Eugene N. Foss, democratic, was elected Governor by a plurality of 7,000, the republicans claim in the remainder of the ticket. In New York the republicans secured control of the lower house. Cleveland and Columbus O, as well as Cincinnati elected democratic mayors.

Gaines is the man that is going to have a cornshow next court day. 11-3-21

Father O'Dwyer came down from Richmond and held service at the home of Mr. N. Miller Tuesday morning.

The honor roll is in this issue of the paper. It should have been in last week and hereafter we will get it published the first week of the month.

Judge Walker himself again. Judge Walker returned from Crab Orchard Monday where he has been for the past week, and is greatly improved so much so that he began the November term of the Lincoln circuit court on Wednesday.

Hide Out Brer Rabbit.

The game law expires on next Wednesday, November 15th, when it will be permissible to kill quail, if you can find them, rabbits and other game peculiar to this section. The season closes again in so far as quail are concerned on Dec. 31st, but it is safe to say that the "possum hunter" will exterminate all of them that remain in this section before that time.

Richmond Poultry Show.

We acknowledge with thanks the receipt of a complimentary ticket to the First Annual Meeting of the Madison County Poultry Association, which meets in Richmond on Dec. 9th for a four days meeting. The association is offering a very liberal premium list which should secure for them a splendid show of fowls. Mr. Coleman Neff is president and Mr. J. B. Walker secretary and treasurer of the association.

A Worthy Enterprise, Help It Along

The good ladies of Harrodsburg are making strenuous efforts to establish a hospital in that city, and have rented a residence to be used temporarily for that purpose. If the citizens could come over here and let us tell them and see for themselves how much good our hospital has done, and what a convenience it is, they would dig down in their pockets and assist the ladies in such a substantial manner as would enable them to erect a hospital in keeping with that thriving town.

The election is over. Now we can begin to fatten our Thanksgiving turkey.

Council Will Take Action.

The City Council in regular session Monday night voted unanimously to take action in regard to the title to the Park as the site for the Government building. They will confer with the county officials and if an eminable understanding cannot be reached, there will in all probability be a friendly suit filed to quiet the title. This is as it should be, now after the site is ceded to the Government by the legislature in 1912, and when Uncle Sam calls for his due, a clear title may be given him.

Bitten By Snake.

Colonel John Robinson, one of the proprietors of Crab Orchard Springs, was removing a barn last Saturday, preparatory to the advent of the fox hunters, who will be at Crab-Orchard on November 13, when a huge rattlesnake, with fourteen rattles, succeeded in inflicting a wound upon his hand. Great pain fear was Mr. Robinson's for a time, but a free use of the "timely warning" soon assured the man's suffering, and after confinement in his bed for a time, he was pronounced "out of danger." - Danville Advocate.

Fox Hunters Meet.

The eighteenth annual meeting of the National Fox Hunters Association will convene at Crab-Orchard next Monday November 13th, for a weeks session. This meeting has come to be quite an enjoyable affair and is looked forward to with a great deal of pleasure by many people in this section. It is a gathering together of splendid gentlemen, many of whom are accompanied by their families, to indulge in a harmless and enjoyable sport, and they do everything in their power to make it pleasant for all during the meeting. Aside from the fox chase, there is always a gay crowd of young people in attendance and anyone who attends will find the time will not hang heavily on their hands.

Foot Ball Game.

The Richmond Foot Ball team came down last Friday afternoon and played our school boys a game. The result was 22 to 12 in favor of Richmond. Our boys played hard and fast and did exceptionally well considering the fact that the opposing team was very much heavier. The game lasted until after dark and both sides fought hard until the last minute was up. The local boys had not had the training till at the other boys have had and could not get on to the forward pass that Richmond made most every touch down on. Curry Robinson, Willie Swope played a fine game and "Babe" Lawson would be a wonder as Quarterback if he had just a little more weight, however he played a good game as did the balance of the players.

The attendance was exceptionally good for this town and many people spent an enjoyable afternoon.

For Kentucky's Advancement.

The Greater Kentucky Convention which convenes in the Seelbach Annex in Louisville on November 13-15 gives promise of even greater interest than was at first expected. The requests for an allotment of time for the discussion of vital subjects have been so numerous that the management deemed it advisable to devote more time to the meeting and the date was changed from Tuesday Nov. 14th to Monday the 13th thereby adding another day to the meeting. The various meetings will be presided over by Gov. Willson, Senators Bradley and Payne, Mr. George H. Cox of Owensboro and J. W. Porter of Lexington. Questions of the most vital importance to the welfare and advancement of Kentucky will be discussed, among which will be "Fire Prevention," Agriculture Extension Work of State University" and many other subjects which will interest Kentuckians. Able men both from home and abroad will be present and take part in the discussions. The social features will also be attractive and all who care to do will be amply repaid by attending. Mr. John M. Farra, who is Garrard county's delegate will be present and present our needs and views. A rate of one fare plus 25 cents has been made by all railroads for the round trip.

Corn Clubs.

That Kentucky can increase her yield of corn to a great extent is shown by the records which have been made by the boys corn growing clubs in many counties of the State. By applying modern and scientific methods to the growing of corn, five boys in Wayne county succeeded in growing more than 100 bushels of corn to the acre. One boy grew 112 bushels.

There are more than 7,000 boys interested in the corn-growing contests, M. C. Rankin, Commissioner of Agriculture, says the corn-growing contests will be brought to a close the last of the month and the county clubs will hold their meetings during November, when the cash prizes will be awarded to the boys who have made the best showing. The second annual State Corn Show will be held in Lexington in January. Liberal premiums, especially in the Junior Department, for boys over ten years of age and under sixteen, will be given in the contests. The Show will continue from January 2 to 5, 1912, and anyone wishing to make an entry can get the premium list and rules of the show by writing to George Roberts, Secy., Lexington, Ky. Some of the best corn in Kentucky is raised right here in Garrard county, and our young farmers should get busy, organize a county club and put up some good entries in the State Corn Show.

DEATHS.

Buford.

The remains of Mrs. Margaret Anderson Buford were interred in the Lancaster cemetery last Saturday morning. The deceased was Miss Margaret Anderson a formerly well known Lancaster lady, who married the late Ambrose Buford, who was also well known here. Mrs. Buford died at her home on Riverside Drive in New York after a long illness; she was in her 79th year at the time of her death.

Groves.

Mrs. Minnie R. Groves died at her home at Hackley in this county at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon and her remains were interred in the Lancaster cemetery Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock after funeral services by Rev. F. M. Tinder. Mrs. Groves underwent a serious operation at the Lancaster hospital about two weeks since, but it afforded her only temporary relief; on last Sunday afternoon she was removed to her home at Hackley, it being her request that her last moments be spent at home with her family. She was accompanied by her nurse Miss Margaret Smith who remained with her until the end came.

Mrs. Groves was the wife of Mr. George Groves, a prosperous farmer of Hackley. She was the daughter of George M. and Mary Raney. She is survived by her father, one brother, Willie Raney, two sisters, Mrs. Ed. Chandler and Mrs. Nelson Davis all of this county, by her husband and eight children, Mrs. Groves was a faithful member of the Christian church. She was a lovable lady and had the love and esteem of a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

William Jennings Lusk.

The remains of William Jennings Lusk were brought here and interred in the Lancaster cemetery Monday. He died at the home of his sister in Biloxi Miss. last Saturday of malarial fever. His remains were accompanied here by his sister and by his physician Dr. Bullas of Biloxi. Only short services were held at the grave by Rev. C. C. Brown, the funeral having been held at Biloxi.

The deceased was 36 years of age, son of the late William Jennings Lusk, for whom he was named, and his mother was a sister of the late Col. John K. Faulkner and of Mrs. Elizabeth Denny of this place, and a half sister of Messrs Steve, Wade and Arch Walker. In the family were three boys, Faulkner, George D. and Will and two girls, Mrs. Eliza Lusk Walker and Mrs. Hervey McDowell, all of whom with the exception of Mrs. McDowell, have passed to the Great Beyond.

The Lusk family were noted for their open heartedness and popularity, and Will was no exception to the rule. While living in this county and in Lancaster he was called friend by everyone who knew him, and his cheerful disposition and kindly temperament caused him to gain friends abroad as well as at home. He left Garrard county some ten years ago to be near to his sister, Mrs. Walker, who was in Colorado. While there he engaged in the railroad business. After the death of Mrs. Walker he never went back west, but to Mississippi to be near his only remaining sister Mrs. McDowell. There he continued the business which he followed in the west, that of railroading and had risen rapidly in his adopted calling, winning the esteem and respect of both his associates and his superior officers. Within the last few years he had united with the Presbyterian church and had lived an exemplary Christian life, one that would assure him of a reunion with his loved ones who have gone before him. The record joins with the host of friends and relatives in tendering deepest sympathy to Mrs. McDowell in her bereavement.

Farris.

Another one of Lancaster's noble women has gone to her reward. Mrs. Henrietta A. Farris, wife of Senator George T. Farris, breathed her last at midnight, Thursday, November 2nd. Mrs. Farris had been ill for some time, of intestinal trouble and while it was known that her illness was of a serious nature, yet her death came as a severe shock to the entire community. She was fifty five years and two months old at the time of her death.

She was the daughter of the late John L. Arnold. She was first married to Harry L. Wild and after his death she married Mr. George T. Farris; to the first union was born one child, Myrtle Wilds, now Mrs. J. E. Smith of Jellico Tenn. and her union with Senator Farris was also blessed by one child, Louise, Mrs. Stephen Walker of this place. Beside her husband and two children, Mrs. Farris is survived by her mother, who lives here, two sisters, Mrs. Lester Wilson of Lula Miss. and Mrs. Charles M. Norris of Williamsburg Ky. and one brother, Joseph H. Arnold, a conductor on the L. & N. R. R., who lives at Richmond.

No more lovable woman ever lived in Lancaster, neither was there one who had more friends. Of the most kindly and sympathetic disposition, she made warm friends of all with whom she came in contact, and it was those who knew her best who best loved her. A kind and loving wife and mother, a tender and sympathetic friend and neighbor, it is not alone in her own immediate home circle that she will be missed, but by all with whom she was acquainted. She was a consistent member and regular attendant of the Christian Church.

Coming of a family which never shrank from the call of duty, a message sent by telegraph to her husband, portrays strongly that trait of her character: In the memorable year of 1900 at Frankfort, Ky., when the Goebel trouble was at its height, and immediately following his assassination, she wired her husband, who was then in the Upper Ky. House representing this district, to "stand at his post of duty, I had rather have you brought home a corpse than to know that you had failed to discharge your duty." Of such material were the martyrs of old.

After short services at the grave conducted by her pastor, Bro. Tinder, her remains were interred in the Lancaster cemetery on last Sunday afternoon.

The heartfelt sympathy of the entire community goes out to Senator Farris, and to every member of the family in the loss of their dear one.

Patrons Of The Lancaster Graded School.

According to a previous custom I submit the Honor Roll of October for your consideration. The requirements for admission to this Roll are present a general average of 90, strict punctuality on all duties and a grade of 90 on deportment. This Roll may seem rather full but these pupils have very faithfully performed their requisite duties.

They are as follows: Thelma Hamilton, Margaret Cook, Bernice Champe, Mary Davis, Wesley Dickerson, Hudson Frisbie, Bowman Grant, William Kincaid, Clayton Morrow, Minnie May Robinson, Carrie Bell Romans, Geo. Swinebroad, Kathleen Bratton, Sue Fisher Respass, Mitchell Tinder, Marie Ballard, Maggie Brown, Elizabeth Collier, Jennie Cox, Chas Dunn, Lucien Grant, Kate Holtzclaw, Mary Holtzclaw, Lily May Sutton, Frank Tinder, Eliza Todd, Viola Tribble, Wood Wilmet, Jas. Woods, Stella Brown, Elisha Carrier, Eugene Cochran, Martha Sweeney, Virginia Beazley, Gladys Frisbie, Jas. Siler, Mildred Beazley, Jno Harvey Estes, Mary Owlsley, Annie Reid, Val Cook, Robt. Brown, Florence Acton, Clarence Anderson, Sallie Cox, Will Rice Amon, Katherine Harris, Nellie Cox, Mary Wood, Annie Powell, Katherine Bourne, Samuel Embry, Mars Swinebroad, Paul Morrow, Maud Davis, Florence Johnson, Ora Prayther, Mamie Stormes Dunn, Mary Etta King, Jane Terrell.

My pupils from the county are very good and would like to have many more of them.

The average attendance is high being 95 per cent of the enrollment. Everything possible is being done to keep down contagious and infectious diseases. Disinfectants, Formaldehyde sulphur and crude carbolic acid are freely used.

A report emanating from an unknown source has it that the State University has lowered its high School from the A class to the B class. Unless that has been done in the last few days it would be a mistake. Rest assured that the high School will grow more thorough instead of going back from the high position it has formerly occupied.

I am glad to see the parents at any time and talk over anything that will tend to the betterment of the child's condition. Yours very truly,
J. L. Riley, Sup't.

Good Bread Recipes.

Prof. M. A. Scovell, Director of the Kentucky Agricultural Experimental Station at Lexington, offers the following recipes for bread making. The recipes are the product of Miss Aubyn Chin of the Dep't of Household Science and will doubtless prove of great value to the housewife.

There is an idea among housewives that yeast bread is very difficult to make and that it is about as cheap to buy the baker's product.

This idea is entirely erroneous. Twice as many loaves of bread may be made at home for the same money that you pay for the baker's bread and there is no difficulty about the baking if a few simple rules are followed.

First of all the yeast must be fresh. In most cases failures are due to carelessness in regulating the temperature of the bread during the rising period.

If the liquid used in the bread is warmed up to 90 degrees Fahrenheit before mixing a great deal of time will be saved. Another very important point in bread making is to have the sponge soft. It matters not what kind of bread is being made if yeast is used the dough should not be stiff for the first rising. When the bread is mixed it should be thoroughly beaten. Oxygen is necessary for the growth of the yeast plant and therefore should be introduced by vigorous beating.

The bread should be set to rise in a temperature of from 70 degrees to 90 degrees Fahrenheit. That is the usual temperature at the side of the coal range. If the place it is put to rise is too hot the yeast plant will be killed. If it is not an even temperature, the bread is likely to rise high, fall and sour in consequence. It should not be in a draught.

After the mass has doubled its bulk, which takes from 2½ to 3 hours where a yeast cake is used to 1 qt. of flour; the bread is ready to be worked over and made up into loaves and set to rise for the second time. The second rising takes sometimes an hour, usually less. This time, too, the mass should double its bulk. The oven should be moderately hot for rolls and rather a slow oven for bread.

Two GOOD RECIPES FOR YEAST BREAD.
Plain Light Bread.

2 cups milk (scalded), 2 tablespoons lard, 2 cups water, 2 tablespoons (level) butter 1 cake yeast, 1 teaspoon salt, 6 to 8 cups flour, 2 tablespoons sugar. Made up according to the preceding rules.

German Coffee Bread

2 cups milk (scalded), 2 tablespoons butter, 3 cups water, 2 tablespoons sugar, 1 cup lukewarm water, 3 cups flour. Let it rise two or three hours, After rising beat in three eggs, two cups raisins and flour enough to make stiff dough. Do not knead but roll out and put ¼ inch layers in shallow pans.

Let it rise a second time. When it is ready to be baked brush with white of egg and cinnamon.

THE ROMANCE OF THE REAPER.

The Lecture And The Real Facts Facing The Farmers And Business Interests Of Kentucky.

Through the courtesy of the International Harvester Company of America, Haselden Bros, our local implement dealer, was able to present the lecture-entertainment, "The Romance of the Reaper," at the Lancaster Opera House last Monday and Tuesday nights.

The lecture tells the story of the progress of agriculture from the earliest times down to the present day, and it traces the development of farm implements and machines from the reaping hook to the scythe and cradle, through to the first reaper, the automatic binder, gasoline tractor, manure spreader, and other modern machines.

The lecture was illustrated with colored views and motion pictures. These not only showed the different farm machines in operation, but the audience was taken on a trip to the International Harvester Company's system of plants, where the machines are made.

The farmers and others in attendance followed the lecture with interest. It contained much information. When we consider the millions of farms in the United States, to say nothing of the rest of the world, and the big crops raised on these farms, we realize that the making of farm machines is a large and important industry.

In spite of the fact that the cost of raw materials and wages have greatly advanced since the organization of the International Harvester Company, the price of farm machines is but little more now than then. It was pointed out that the modern binder, composed of more than 1,200 separately formed parts, and made of the best steel, malleable iron and seasoned wood, is today the cheapest thing a farmer buys.

Taken pound for pound, a binder costs him less than his plow or cast iron cook stove.

The price of binder twine has steadily fallen, until today it retails for only a little more than half of what it did ten years ago.

During the evening the prices of farm machines at home and abroad were discussed. It was shown, by an investigation made by the United States Government, that a six-foot binder which a Kentucky farmer can buy for about $125.00, costs the English farmer $135., the French farmer $173., the Swedish farmer $160., the Russian farmer $180., the Siberian farmer $187., and the farmer of Germany $203.00.

Just now, on account of the overzealousness and agitation of certain lawyers, Kentucky farmers are threatened with the worst sort of hardships in the purchase of their farm machines and repair parts for the same.

Sad to relate, in this State there is a law by which any prosecuting attorney can bring suit against any corporation doing business in Kentucky; the Commonwealth pays the cost of prosecution and should a jury assess a fine, and the fine ever be collected, the taxpayers of the county in which suit is brought are not benefited, but the attorneys and court offices put 88 per cent of the fine into their own pockets.

Recently one of these suits was brought in Bullitt County. Here is what the Shepherdsville News said about it: "In the Circuit Court last Saturday afternoon the jury trying the case of the Commonwealth vs. the International Harvester Company of America returned a verdict for the full amount allowed by law, $5,000. Of this amount, if the verdict stands, the Commonwealth's Attorney will get $2,500; County Attorney, $1,250; Circuit Clerk, $500.00; Trustee of the jury fund, $150.; and the State, $800, less $120 paid twelve jurors for five days and $25 paid the Juicer and Sheriff; leaving the State $455 out of $5000.00. Bullitt county gets nothing, and ultimately the farmer will pay the whole thing."

But ultimately the farmers will pay more than they imagine. No company can offer to pay to the lawyers a $5,000 license for the privilege of doing business in a county, and sooner or later they will drive large companies from the State. To take modern farm machines out of Kentucky would set the State back a hundred years.

Those who saw "The Romance of the Reaper," more fully realize than ever before the great progress made by agriculture and the entire business world since the development of modern farm machines. To cripple the work of the company that has made all this possible will be to cripple the farms and the entire business welfare of the State.

Ollie Johnson has bought of Mr. Pruitt his residence and 15 acres of land for $1500.00 and will move to it about the 1st of December.

As a rule, it will not pay to hold the pig crop for prices to rise unless they are making good gains all the time they are being held. When a few feeders win out in playing the market game, many more lose.

Mr. J. C. Caldwell sold 303 head of very fine export cattle yesterday afternoon to Mr. J. C. Bales, of Richmond, at the top price of $6.75, per hundred. The price is the highest that has been paid for export cattle in Kentucky this year. The bunch will average about 1500 pounds each. The cattle will bring a total of about $30,000. Danville Advocate.

Receipts of live stock on the Chicago market last week were, in round numbers 85,400 cattle, 142,400 hogs, and 20,300 sheep. Last week's receipts, compared with the previous week, in round numbers increased 13,100 cattle, decreased 9400 hogs and 11,300 sheep. Compared with the corresponding week a year ago cattle increase 7,800, hogs 30,500 and sheep 9,500.

J. C. Crisicilis and Son, have just returned from Helenwood, Tenn., where they bought three carloads of cattle, the 400 to 800-pound grade costing from 3½ to 3½ and the 1,000-pound grade costing from about 4½ cents. They also bought a carload of cattle from traders around Williamsburg, Ky., 48 head weighing from 450 to 1,000 pounds and costing from 3 to 3½ cents.

Saved Many from Death.

W. L. Mock, of Mock, Ark., believes he has saved many lives in his 25 years of experience in the drug business.

"What I always like to do," he writes,

"is to recommend Dr. King's New Discovery for weak, sore lungs, hard colds, hoarseness, obstinate coughs, la grippe, croup, asthma or other bronchial affection, for I feel sure that a number of my neighbors are alive and well to-day because they took my advice to use it. I honestly believe its the best throat and lung medicine that's made."

Mrs. Martha Evans Lusk and Mr. Charles W. Anderson are confined to their rooms with bronchial trouble.

Mr. John Anderson brought to the Record office a bunch of wheat the green stalks measuring thirty two inches in length. Mr. Anderson tells us that he purchased the wheat here in town, not desiring any particular quality, and planted it in his garden the 3rd, of September with the above result.

Mr. Robinson's Condition.

The condition of Mr. Alexander C. Robinson, who has been so seriously ill for some time, remains unchanged at the time the Record goes to press. Owing to his advanced age and decreased vitality his friends and relatives entertain serious fears for his recovery.

Starts Much Trouble.

If all people knew that neglect of constipation would result in severe indigestion, yellow jaundice or violent liver trouble they would soon take Dr. King's New Life Pills, and end it. Its the only safe way. Best for biliousness, headache, dyspepsia, chills and debility.

The sale of Mrs. Sallie A. Pence held last Thursday, the 2d inst., at her home near Marksburg was well attended and everything offered brought fair prices. J. B. Ruble bought a pair of 8 year old mare mules for $45.50, yearling mare for $127.50, a 2 year old gelding for $152.50; T. B. Bright a pair of 2 year old mare mules for $82.50, W. T. Doolin a pair of 3 year old mares for $437.50. Hogs brought $5.00 per cwt, milk cows from $50. to $75., 500 bales timothy hay brought $16.50 per ton.

Tobacco Not Starting Off Well.

A few crops of the 1910-11 tobacco has been sold on the Louisville markets and very poor prices realized therefor, averaging only about $5.65 on the offerings. However, it is thought with the progress of the work on the new crop that better prices will be forthcoming. Warehousemen are sending out circular letters to the growers urging them to grade their crops carefully, giving especially attention to the color grades, as the bright tobacco is expected to bring the best prices.
